Smoking Salmon & Over 40 Years of Tradition

Larry & Bernita Freed

Bernita's been Larry's 2nd mate for 64 years and have fished together for 66. Bernita said, "I think he figured out I liked to fish and decided I was a keeper." Better yet she even smokes them, Larry said! Larry and Bernita hail from Kansas, graduating their senior year together and married July 6, 1958 . They will celebrate their 65th Anniversary next year. Both 84 years young, Bernita says "we're still doing pretty good for our age." Larry has fished for salmon on Lake Sakakawea for the last 44 years. With all that fish, Bernita has perfected and is well known for her art of smoking fish. "Our smokers are at least 30 years old, and I know that because we bought our house here in Riverdale 30 years ago. Only 1 of the 3 (pictured below) are new and the other 2 used" but Bernita says, "those tend to work better!" On August 27, 2018, North Dakota Outdoors featured Larry & Bernita. Click the link below to watch.

A very special thank you to Larry for requesting a story honoring his beautiful wife of 64 years and the tradition she keeps alive.

Many conversations and "fish stories" told around this table throughout the years

Bernita filling the smoker

"Old Blue", Larry's 1978 Ford Pickup the same pickup he used the first time he went salmon fishing in 1978.

Retired at age 53 from the government Larry decided to charter for awhile forming Northland Charter.

Yard of the Week

Congratulations

Kevin & Julie Dockter

110 3rd Street

The last Yard of the Week for 2022 was awarded to Julie & Kevin Dockter, at 110 3rd St., Riverdale. The front yard has a rock garden in front of the living room window that holds red petunias planted in white containers. Mixed in with the flowers are a cream can, garden flag, a hanging lantern and solar lights. Look for the angel and cherubs too. On the driveway an aged galvanized wash tub holds more flowers. The fenced back yard has a garden shed, patio furniture and a swing. Julie has a couple shepherd hooks that each hold 4 hanging baskets of beautiful blooming flowers. Wind chimes and a gazing ball add whimsy to the yard. Look for the decorative wreath around the light on the front porch. Congratulations Julie & Kevin! Thanks for keeping your corner of Riverdale beautiful!

The times always seem to be changing and it is so with the Riverdale Times. This will be the last issue with Brenda Beran as our Editor. Brenda has done a wonderful job. She took the newspaper from basically a paper with just ads to something that had fun and informative articles. She also developed a Facebook page with hundreds of followers which gave our advertisers more visibility. She poured her heart and soul into our paper and for that we will be forever thankful.

We plan to continue the paper for now with an interim editor. The editor does not need to be a member of the club, but we certainly would welcome them. If you are looking for an outlet for your creative talent, this may be your opportunity. Please contact us at Riverdale Pick City Women's Club

As I say goodbye and this journey now ends, I'm incredibly grateful to you all. I had a vision for this paper in which it could be a way to celebrate communities, businesses, non-profits and organizations who do incredible work for others and bring light to all they do. Ones story is often not told but this was a way that it could be done and deserved to be...not by me, I'm just the instrument, but by them. It's been a privilege for me to do and along the way, friendships, partnerships and collaborations were made and I'm forever blessed for you our readers, advertisers and contributors who ultimately made that vision a reality. The Times has grown and evolved so much during these last 2 ½ years and even though we still print the paper as usual, on April 1, 2020, we went live on Facebook and now at almost 650 members and also located on both the Riverdale and Pick City city websites, this wonderful piece of history can be enjoyed from anywhere. My time with you and the countless hours creating an issue that would hopefully bring a little joy to your day and provide educational content from our incredible contributors was my prayer. I learned so much and The Riverdale Times I saw as everyone's paper because it included so many surrounding communities which was important to do. We are always better together when working for the common good. I will never forget these last couple of years that you have welcomed me into your hearts and homes. Many projects continue for me as they always have, and I'll always go where I'm needed and can best serve others. Now as time marches on and visions and people have changed, I sign off for the last time. I will always cherish being a small part of this little paper that could... and did.

~Brenda
