WHY HE CARRIED THE TURKEY

By James Baldwin

In Richmond, Virginia, one Saturday morning, an old man went into the market to buy something.

He was dressed plainly, his coat was worn, and his hat was dingy. On his arm he carried a small basket. "I wish to get a fowl for tomorrow's dinner," he said. The market man showed him a fat turkey, plump and white and ready for roasting. "Ah! that is just what I want," said the old man.

"My wife will be delighted with it." He asked the price and paid for it. The market man wrapped paper around it and put it in the basket. Just then a young man stepped up. "I will take one of those turkeys," he said. He was dressed in fine style and carried a small cane. "Shall I wrap it up for you?" asked the market man. "Yes, here is your money," answered the young gentleman; "and send it to my house at once." "I cannot do that," said the market man. "My errand boy is sick today, and there is no one else to send. Besides, it is not our custom to deliver goods."

"Then how am I to get it home?" asked the young gentleman. "I suppose you will have to carry it yourself," said the market man. "It is not heavy." "Carry it myself! Who do you think I am? Fancy me carrying a turkey along the street!" said the young gentleman and he began to grow very angry.

The old man who had bought the first turkey was standing quite near. He had heard all that was said. "Excuse me, sir," he said; "but may I ask where you live?" "I live at Number 39, Blank Street," answered the young gentleman; "and my name is Johnson." "Well, that is lucky," said the old man, smiling. "I happen to be going that way, and I will carry your turkey, if you will allow me." "Oh, certainly!" said Mr. Johnson. Here it is. You may follow me." When they reached Mr. Johnson's house, the old man politely handed him the turkey and turned to go. "Here, my friend, what shall I pay you?" said the young gentleman. "Oh, nothing, sir, nothing," answered the old man.

"It was no trouble to me, and you are welcome." He bowed and went on. Young Mr. Johnson looked after him and wondered. Then he turned and walked briskly back to the market. "Who is that polite old gentleman who carried my turkey for me?" he asked of the market man. "That is John Marshall, Chief Justice of the United States. He is one of the greatest men in our country," was the answer. The young gentleman was surprised and ashamed. "Why did he offer to carry my turkey?" he asked. "He wished to teach you a lesson," answered the market man. "What sort of lesson?"

"He wished to teach you that no man should feel himself too fine to carry his own packages." "Oh, no!" said another man who had seen and heard it all. "Judge Marshall carried the turkey simply because he wished to be kind and obliging, That is his way."

THANK YOU

I believe most of you would agree that the Riverdale-Pick City Ambulance is a valuable asset to our area and much needed.. As a result, we must work together to maintain the service.

This year we have again been awarded a matching grant from Twice Blessed through Inspiritus (formerly the St. Joseph Foundation). Therefore, I would like to personally thank those who have worked hard to put this fundraiser into action.

To start with the grant was written and later approved by Inspiritus. Then we met with a former leader who guided us through the process. One of the group stepped up to check addresses, gather information, design the flyer and purchase supplies. Another volunteer ran copies of the flyers/letters and donation cards.

Then on November 8th, 24 volunteers gathered in the Pick City City Hall to assemble 2700 flyers containing information about the ambulance service and the fundraiser as well as a donor card. Two of the ladies prepared a delicious lunch for us.

Thank you to each of you who have shared your time and talent.

You all are truly a blessing.

It has taken many hands and much effort to prepare the information that will be sent to you in a few days. Hopefully, you will respond generously with your donations.

Remember each one of you is vital to the continued success of the Riverdale-Pick City Ambulance service.

Thanking you, I am Sharon Moon.

Sausage Pinwheels

published in Pinterest by: Be Centsational

1 pound ground sausage

1 (8-ounce) package cream cheese, softened

1 teaspoon garlic powder

1/4 cup chopped green onions

1 (8-count) package crescent rolls

Instructions

Instructions

Cook the sausage over medium heat in a skillet, breaking it up with a spatula as it cooks.

Drain off any excess grease. In a medium bowl, combine the cream cheese, garlic powder, and green onions. Stir until well combined.

Unroll the crescent rolls and place them on a piece of parchment paper. Do not separate the rolls.

Spread the sausage mixture over the crescent rolls, leaving a 1-inch border around the edges.

Starting from the long side, roll up the crescent rolls tightly.

Wrap the roll in the parchment paper and then in plastic wrap. Freeze for at least 1 hour.

Preheat the oven to 375 degrees F (190 degrees C).

Remove the roll from the freezer and unwrap it. Cut the roll into 1/4-inch thick slices.

Place the slices on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper.

Bake for 10-12 minutes, or until golden brown.

New Look & New Name? Hazen Smiles

credits: Dan Arens, Hazen Star & Toni Ganje, The Riverdale Times

Dr. Krysta Sellers and her husband Jason purchased Joy Dental Design in December 2022.

Hazen Smiles is the name of the new dental office which is located at Main Street and 2nd Ave NE, Hazen ND. Dr. Krysta Sellers worked full time for Joy Dental in the summer of 2016, prior to opening her own practice at the Aesthetic Dental Center in Bismarck. "I like the small-town warmth and welcoming nature of the people of Hazen," she said. "When I heard of the opportunity to purchase the Hazen dental practice, I immediately became interested." Krysta said having that connection with the staff of Joy Dental, and with the community as a whole, was how the Sellers got involved in discussions and ultimately ended up making the purchase.

The Sellers closed on the purchase Dec. 29, although Jason said they view Jan. 1 as the real opening day. Jason Sellers is the owner of several mattress stores in North Dakota, as well as with his wife's dental practice. He said that he will largely oversee the management and publicity side of Hazen Smiles. "I understand business, so I'll run the business side of things, and leave the dentist expertise to my wife," Jason said.

That partnership will come in handy as the Sellers navigate both the daily activities of their new enterprise and balancing the completion of the recent renovations.

"The dental practice has been in Hazen for over 50 years, and the building needed some updates so the community can have the practice for another 50 years," Krysta said. "We want to build something that the community can be proud of and we can be proud of, and really provide state-of-the-art dental services," Jason said. Despite these changes, Krysta said that the services are largely the same, with the possibility of adding teeth whitening at some point. They are hoping to hire an additional dental hygienist. Jason said they will remain on top of changes in dental technology. "One thing we do really well is if there is a new treatment and technology that comes out, we make that part of our continuing education that our staff goes through," he said.

"We can adjust if another advancement comes up.

We will try to be the most current and provide the best experience for people when they come see us."

Krysta said she has been so excited to begin this new part of her career, dedicated to brightening up smiles. "I just like to see people smile and to really affect their lives," she said. She began practicing dentistry in Dickinson in 2011, before her time in Hazen and then opening her practice in Bismarck.

Krysta said Aesthetic Dental Center specializes in tooth aesthetics and rebuilding lost teeth. Jason added that one advantage of the purchase is that, if a Hazen resident needs this kind of specialized care, it will make the referral process for Bismarck as smooth as possible.

The Sellers have two children: an 8-year-old daughter Ella and a 5-year-old son Brecken. Krysta said they keep very busy, both with their work and with Ella's figure skating events, but also enjoy boating and fishing in the summer. They recently started doing some skiing in the winter.

In addition to her time with Joy Dental in Hazen, Krysta said she has extended family in Beulah, so she is familiar with the area. Jason said Hazen Smiles plans to have a grand opening, but a date has not been set at this point.

-Facebook Story -

A man and woman had been married for more than 60 years. They had shared everything. They had talked about everything. They had kept no secrets from each other except that the little old woman had a shoe box in the top of her closet that she had cautioned her husband never to open or ask her about.

For all of these years, he had never thought about the box, but one day the little old woman got very sick and the doctor said she would not recover.

In trying to sort out their affairs, the little old man took down the shoe box and took it to his wife's bedside. She agreed that it was time that he should know what was in the box. When he opened it, he found two crocheted dolls and a stack of money totalling $95,000.

He asked her about the contents.

"When we were to be married," she said, "my grandmother told me the secret of a happy marriage was to never argue. She told me that if I ever got angry with you, I should just keep quiet and crochet a doll."

The little old man was so moved; he had to fight back tears. Only two Precious dolls were in the box. She had only been angry with him two Times in all those years of living and loving. He almost burst with Happiness.

"Honey," he said, "that explains the doll, but what about all of this money? Where did it come from?"

"Oh," she said, "that's the money I made from selling
