"HO-HO-HO-HIKE, A Holiday Adventure"

December 20th ~ January 1st

The North Country Trail Association's Central Flyway Chapter and The Friends of Audubon Refuge are sponsoring a "Self-Guided Hike" from December 20, 2021, through January 1, 2022.

The hike is 2 miles long and follows along the Refuge's Prairie Nature Trail as well as the new sections of the North Country Trail. The trails surfaces are concrete, mowed grass, and gravel.

The hiking trail will be well marked with signs depicting the 12 Days of Christmas and our New Holiday Traditions. The hike begins at the parking lot of the Refuge Visitor's Center.

The North Country Trail portion of the hike will be marked with candy canes, and the Prairie Nature Trail will have the Twelve Days of Christmas Signs. In the wooded area of the trail (within the first half mile) you will learn all about the history of some of our country's most popular Christmas Traditions.

We will have a bird friendly decorated Christmas tree in the holiday traditions segment of the hike, so if you would like to bring a bird friendly ornament, please check our Facebook pages listed below for suggestions. We realize the weather in North Dakota dictates whether or not these winter events can take place, so please check our Facebook Pages:

for updates about the trail conditions and the guided hike in particular.

There is no entry fee for the hike or for entrance into the refuge.

The address for the refuge is:
3098 11th St. NW, Coleharbor, ND

NATIONAL CARD PLAYING DAY

National Day Calendar

National Card Playing Day on December 28th encourages us to invite our friends to deal out a hand and play a game or two.

In the 9th century, the Chinese began developing games using money and other paper objects. These early playing cards bear no resemblance to the sturdier European playing cards that emerged a few centuries later.

Card games spread around the world in a variety of shapes and styles. From the elaborate Mamluk designs of Egypt to the appearance of the first playing cards during the Early Renaissance in Europe, the decks were divided into four suits of coins, cups, swords, and sticks or batons.

It is from these four suits that today's modern decks of playing cards developed. Theories range how the suits converted to hearts, spades, diamonds and clubs. One theory suggests the suits represent the different classes of the era – clergy, aristocracy, military, and peasantry.

In India, the ten suited card game of Ganjifa became popular during the Moghul period. Traditionally, artists hand-painted a stunning scene on each of the 120 cards in the deck.

A standard pack of cards may be used for playing a variety of card games, with varying elements of skill and chance, some of which are played for money. Some of the top card games include Spades, Poker, Solitaire, Spite and Malice, Hearts, Spoons, Gin Rummy, Ridge, Blackjack, and Texas Hold'em. Of course, there are thousands of card games, some of which are regional favorites.

Some Trivia

Q. What is a card sharp?

A. A card sharp, or the more modern variation card shark, describes a skilled or deceptive card player. They may use sleight of hand or other methods of cheating to win a game.

Q. What is the largest card maker in the world?

A. The United States Playing Card Company (and the maker of Bicycle brand playing cards) is the largest playing card maker in the world.

Q. How many decks of cards are used in Las Vegas each year?

A. Sin City uses approximately 27 million decks every year.

Q. What are the four suits in a standard deck of cards?

A. The four suits in a standard deck of cards are hearts, clubs, diamonds, and spades. Each of them contains thirteen cards: ace, two through ten, and three face cards. The two jokers bring the deck to 54 cards.

Merry Christmas

THE STRANGER

At Christmas time there was a man who looked so out of place
As people rushed about him at a hurried sort of pace.
He stared at all the Christmas lights, the tinsel everywhere, the shopping center with Santa Claus and children gathered there.

The mall was packed with shoppers who were going to and fro, some with smiles and some with frowns and some too tired to go.
They rested on the benches or they hurried on their way to fight the crowd for purchases to carry home that day.

The music from the stereo was playing loud and clear;
of Santa Claus and snow men and a funny-nosed reindeer.
He heard the people talk about the good times on the way of parties, fun and food galore, and gifts exchanged that day.

"I'd like to know what's going on," the man was heard to say.
"There seems to be some sort of celebration on the way."
The answer came in disbelief, "I can't believe my ears!
I can't believe you do not know that Christmas is here."

"The time when Santa comes around with gifts for girls and boys.
When they're asleep on Christmas Eve he leaves them books and toys.
The man you see in red and white is Santa Claus, so sly.
The children love his joyful laugh and twinkle in his eye."

"His gift-packed sleigh is pulled along by eight tiny reindeer as he flies quickly through the air darting there and here.
The children learn of Santa Claus while they are still quite small.
When Christmas comes, he is the most important one of all!"

The stranger hung his head in shame, he closed a nail-pierced hand.
His body shook with disbelief; he did not understand.
A shadow crossed his stricken face, his voice was low but clear.
"After all these years they still don't know."

and JESUS shed a tear.
