Yard of the week June 29, 2023

The Jurgens

Vern & Carol

105 4th Street

This week we travel to the yard of Vern & Carol Jurgens at 105 4th St, in Riverdale. The freshly cut grass and all of the blooming lilies caught our eye. There are different varieties: day lilies, tiger lilies and star gazer lilies, providing a riot of color in front of the house.

The daisies are blooming by the corner of the house next to the garage. The part of the yard that you can't see from the street includes huge hostas and decorative fountains. The Jurgens have a "small" garden area behind the garage with a grape arbor. They also have pear, plum and apple trees. It looks like there will be lots of fruit to enjoy this year. Congratulations Carol & Vern!
Thanks for keeping your corner of Riverdale beautiful.

Yard of the week July 5, 2023

The simplicity of a new deck, a nicely maintained lawn, and bright red & white petunias in large containers at the home of Sandy & Victor Krehlik, 209 5th St., Riverdale, caught our eye for Yard of the Week on July 5. The Krehliks also have some day lilies blooming and have decorative plants in the curved flower bed at the front of the house. The back yard has large pine trees and more green lawn. The Krehliks daughter, Lexie, an aspiring interior designer, picked the color for the new deck and railing. Look for items to be added to the deck soon.

Congratulations Sandy, Victor & Lexie!

Thanks for keeping your corner of Riverdale beautiful.

Baked Parmesan Zucchini Fries

These are so good, not "crispy" because they're healthy but still tasty. There's no bread crumbs so they're a little healthier than most zucchini fries recipes and less crispy. If you want them crispy and not keto, add bread crumbs to the coating, then spray the outside before baking.

Prep Time 5minutes mins Cook Time 18 minutes mins Servings: 6 servings Calories:

Ingredients

1 1/2 lbs. (680 g) zucchini, cut lengthwise into wedges (about 3 medium zucchinis)

1/2 cup (50 g) freshly grated Parmesan

1 teaspoon (5 ml) dried herbs - thyme, oregano, basil, rosemary, etc...

1/2 teaspoon (2.5 ml) smoked paprika

1/2 teaspoon (2.5 ml) garlic powder

Kosher salt, to taste

black pepper, to taste (freshly ground if possible)

2 tablespoons (30 ml) olive oil

3 tablespoons (45 ml) chopped fresh parsley leaves

Instructions

Preheat oven to 400° F. Line baking sheet with parchment or aluminum foil. Spray with non-stick cooking spray.

In bowl, combine Parmesan, dried herbs, smoked paprika and garlic powder salt and pepper, to taste.

Toss the zucchini with olive oil and roll in parmesan/herb mixture to coat all sides.

Place zucchini onto prepared baking sheet. Sprinkle with extra parmesan/herb mixture if needed.

Bake until crisp, about 15 minutes. Then broil for 2-3 minutes, or until golden brown.

Garnish with parsley. Serve warm.

Working Together

McLean County Regional Library

The Summer Reading theme for this year at the library is "All Together Now". In that spirit the library has a table-size coloring sheet for anyone and everyone to color when they stop in the library. The poster is right inside the front door - you can't miss it! If coloring isn't your "thing", we have a Stick Together poster by the circulation desk. The poster is printed with small squares with a code for the color of sticker that goes in that square. We don't know what the picture will be when it is finished but if we 'All work Together' we'll find out soon.

Deer Lottery Held, Licenses Remain

North Dakota's deer gun lottery has been held and more than 4,300 licenses remain. Only resident applicants who were unsuccessful in the lottery can apply for remaining licenses. Successful applicants can expect to receive their deer license by early August. More than 68,500 individuals applied for a deer gun lottery license, in addition to over 13,000 gratis applicants. The 2023 deer gun proclamation allows for 53,400 deer gun season licenses. Unsuccessful applicants can apply online for remaining licenses beginning July 5. The deadline for applying is July 19. Operation Dry Water

The North Dakota Game and Fish Department will participate in Operation Dry Water as part of a nationally coordinated effort to increase knowledge about the dangers of boating under the influence. The goal is to reduce the number of accidents and deaths associated with alcohol and drug use on state waterways. ODW weekend, July 1-3, is the national weekend of heightened enforcement directed at boating under the influence laws and recreational boater outreach. While educating boaters about the hazards associated with boating while under the influence of alcohol or drugs is a year-round effort, on ODW weekend the Game and Fish Department's game wardens focus on the water, informing boaters about safe boating practices, and removing impaired operators from the water.

Tips for staying safe on the water:

- Boat sober – Alcohol use is the leading contributing factor in recreational boater deaths. Alcohol and drug use impair a boater's judgment, balance, vision and reaction time.
- Wear your life jacket – 85% of drowning victims nationwide were not wearing a life jacket.
- Take the online boating safety education course – 71% of deaths nationwide occurred on boats where the operator had not received boating safety instruction.

Put Garbage Where it Belongs

Outdoor recreationists are encouraged to keep it clean this summer by packing out all trash. All garbage, including used fireworks, should be placed in a proper trash receptacle. If trash cans aren't available, or full, dispose of trash at home. It is not uncommon to see garbage piling up around full trash containers. Styrofoam containers are not biodegradable, but are often found wedged in cattails, drifting or washed up on shore. Tires, mattresses and kitchen appliances have found their way to public use areas. This illegal dumping is costly to clean up and takes a significant toll on the environment. Not only does it spoil the beauty of the land, it destroys habitat, has the potential to pollute North Dakota waters and can injure wildlife.
